

I'll Always Praise Your Name

Chris & Kyle

I'll always praise your name.

With my mind, body, and all I have

I'll always praise your name.

With my mind, body, and all I have

From the fruit of my lips and with all of my substance

I'll praise You with all I have.

Repeat As Directed

From the fruit of my lips and with all of my substance

I'll praise You with all I have.
